Quickly Wears Away

People sometimes dread to enter a bank; this is simply because they are not familiar with the customs of business. But this feeling of embarrassment quickly wears away with those who deal with this bank; at least we try to have it so. We want every customer to feel free and easy. . . .

Wants of the Ladies

We give particular attention to the business wants of the ladies; also the needs of children, and others with whom business is not a daily habit. . . .
We want all to feel at home when they enter our bank. . . .

THE BANK OF MADISON, pitched but it is thought the place will be in the city park.

WANTED:—Five hundred pounds of fodder and one thousand bushels of corn. Smith & Hodges.
Mr. H. J. McCall returned from Macon last Friday where he had been to see his daughter, Miss Susie. The young lady was thought to be ill with scarlet fever, but at the time of Mr. Mc-Call's departure was very much improved.

pared for it which will be found at the cash register.
Mr. W. S. Jordan, of Madison, was here yesterday looking after attractions for the street fair there on Nov. 27th, 28th and 29th. He says the people there are making unusual preparations for the entertainment of visitors and he is counting on a good crowd from Valdosta.—Times

The fire at the Lines House last Thursday night might have proven serious but for the timely and thoughtful action of the Major who smothered it with a blanket. The fire companies got out in good shape and were on the scene with as little delay as the average city fire brigade.

How People Lose Their Money

BY CONCEALING it about their person; by stowing it away in mugs, jugs, and jars; by sewing it up in skirts and ticks, by tucking it under the couches and carpets, in cupboards and bureau drawers; these are some of the ways by which people lose their money, and sometimes their lives.

How People Save Their Money

BY DEPOSITING it in a good reliable bank.
Confident that this bank fully meets the public's needs, we tender its services to all who believe in keeping on the safe side.
